From the Baron and Baroness

Greetings Unto the Populace of Caerthe.

Toys for Tots!!! Last year we made a very impressive showing. In fact, we did better for our first attempt than any of the other groups did for theirs. Talan has tournaments scheduled for everyone (not just the fighters!). Come out this month to the Jefferson County fairgrounds and help support the efforts to bring joy and happiness into the hearts of children for Christmas.

WAR!!! WAR!!! WAR!!! WAR!!! WAR!!! WAR!!!

Estrella War is coming soon and practices are being setup to prepare the our warriors for battle. Their Majesties and Their Royal Highness are encouraging all to prepare. Our Warlord wants to organize a "Caerthan Army" to join in the fighting as a combat unit of the Outlands.

People have rarely considered that their comments can be heard by many during court. Recently, one recipient was called into court and was overheard by the CROWN to utter an expletive of surprise (we know who YOU are).

Congratulations to Mistress Bernice of Brittany for her admittance to the Order of the Sable Lion, and Grellan O Conchobhair for his admission to the Order of the Aspen, Baron of the Mountain Hold for his Promise of the Outlands, Our most Venerable friends Lady Angelique Rive de Hellsgate, Lord Guillaume de Gonzac and Lord Stephan Sorenson, Lady Annastasia for her Award of Arms, THLady Amber the Quietest for her addmission to the Order of the Desert Flower, as well as all the other recipients who received awards during the stealth courts of Their Majesties held during the course of the day.

Walter Fiachra

from the Seneschal

Greetings good gentles! Well Fall is finally here and I hope your harvest went well and your pantries are well stocked for the coming winter!

Let's get on to business. First I'd like to thank Lady Gabrielle DuBois and THLady Gabrielle de Cartier for hosting some very enjoyable Arts and Sciences events this past month! Next I'd like to thank two Baronial officers who've stepped down this month past. Lady Angelique (our fencing Marshall) and Lord Larke (our archery marshall) have served our Barony well and I wish them both the best of luck in their future endeavors. Though their Excellencies and I are still discussing who shall step into Larke's position, I am happy to announce that Lady Angelique's deputy, Lord Bernajoux, will be assuming the position of Baronial Fencing Marshall. If you are interested in being considered for the Archery position, please contact either their Excellencies or myself ASAP.

Though I'm sure you will read more about this subject further on in these pages, but due to technicalities, the site at Fruitdale Elementary did not work out (although it was fine for one practice) so we are still on the look out for a winter site. Please contact myself, Stasia or Lord Hoegaarden if you have any ideas.

Finally I'd like to wish the Canton of Hawks Hollow well as it celebrates its thirteenth anniversary of Oct 31st on Nov. 1st at the "Changing of the Colors" ball!

In service to the populous and the dream,

Roland O'Rourke

Ps. Speaking of anniversaries, if I may be so bold, I'd like to thank my lady, my wife and (most importantly) my best friend, for sharing six years of her life with someone who, sometimes, feels unworthy of being blessed with such a creature as she. I love you Orlafthia. (for you critics: "Yea I know our anniversary is on October 31st, but I know you'll get this before the end of the month anyway and besides she'll be suprised.)

Baronial Directory

It's time to update the data-base for the Baronial Directory. If you have moved or changed any of your information in the current directory; or are new in the Barony please contact Lady Cecelia. Information will be accepted via e-mail or hard copy (typed or printed) only. I will try to have a print-out of the current data on the file for checking at any event I attend. Additions or changes may be sent to: E-mail to mconley@castle.cudenver.edu or regular mail to:

From the Herald

Greetings,

Congratulations to all who received awards at Caerthan Warlord: Bernice of Brittany, Kerold Hoegaarden, Rivka Vladimirovna Rivkina as our newest Sable Lions; Arwen Southernwood, Angelique Rive de Hellsgate received the Cordon of Honor; the Black Glove of Caerthe was given to Padraig.

My apologies to everyone that my mundane life has been interfering with things. Hopefully, by the time you read this, my job will be somewhat back to normal, and I can begin to catch up on everything.

Richenda

From the Chronicler

Greetings to all and may the coming Holidays find you in good health.

This month marks the second issue of the last three that has displayed cover art by one of our up and coming young Outlanders. I hope to encourage more artists, young and old, to share their talents with us all. I am now accepting greyscale (pencil, charcoal, etc.) artwork for the cover. I am hoping this may encourage those who feel "limited" by ink drawings. Elsewhere in this issue I experimented with a new screening effect and if it copied well, I will also accept photographs as artwork and cover art.

The "report" on the humorous incident at the Performing Arts Collegium that appears in the issue is the sort of article I hope to include in future issues. So if you see something funny, incredible or an act of Honor, Chivalry or Gallantry, please write it down and give it myself, THLady Illeana or Lady Arwen. Please, do ask permission from the subject(s) before submitting it.

It is possible that I am also going to need permission forms from all who submit artwork and articles. This comes down from the high office and I will be carrying forms with me for those who need them. I will avail to print them also as space permits.

THLord Roland also mentions an Anniversary this month. Congratulations to him and his wife. Anyone wishing to mention an event such as an Anniversary, Birth, Birthday or whatever may do so and I will do my best to make room for such.

Thanks to all those kind gentles who have made such wonderful comments about the changes to date. There are still more to come and as always. I welcome any suggestions.

In your Service,

Lord Frederick of the Black Swans

from the Arts and Sciences Minister

October was a very busy month for the Arts and Sciences in Caerthe. I hope all of you where able to attend the Caethen Performing competition and collegium. Music, poetry, and songs filled the air. The Roman feast was very tasty and the service, well what can I say, it was weird-no, amusing-no, undressed-no, UNIQUE!! Many, many, many thanks go out to Lady Rhiannon Wild Heart and Lady Elizabeth de Valance for their help in scoring. Without their help I would have missed most of the evening.

Congratulations and thanks to all the winners, teachers, entrants and cooks. The over all winner was Mistress Rowen Brithwalt.

Congratulations to THLady Gabrielle de Cartier on a very successful Kingdom A&S Collegium. I am sure that I speak for others when I say I had a great time! Lady Meghan's feast was wonderful, as always.

In service to the dream,

Lady Orlafthia na Tosh Cira

University of Caerthe

Because of the mundane holiday of Thanksgiving there will be no University in November. Instead we will meet on the first Wednesday of December to hear about "A Brief History of the Wool Industry in England, from Early Medieval Times to the Reign of Elizabeth I". The wool trade influenced lifestyles, politics and the economy, and was so important that it became the tradition that the Chief Justice of England sits on a wool sack.

We will meet at 7:30 P.M. on the first Wednesday of December, December 5, at the home of Mistress Ava and Master Hagar, 4439 Zuni Street in Denver. If you are coming from the south, take the north Speer exit from I-25 and go north when you come to Zuni. If you are coming from the north, take the Federal exit south from I-70, then go east to Zuni. All are encouraged to attend. Period garb is optional, but appreciated.

For further information, call Mistress Ava, 480-9321, or Master Robin Vinehall, 444-5004.

Cooks Guild

This month' s Cooks' Guild will feature a trip to Mataam Fez, for an evening of sitting on pillows, eating delicious middle-eastern food and even middle-eastern dancing! Please let me know if you'd like to join us by November 10, so I can make reservations. We will meet at 910 Milwaukee, at 6:30 pm on FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 14, and car-pool to the restaurant. The cost is $23.95 for a 5-course dinner. This is NOT GARB.

Call Kate, 322-1907, to make reservations, or with any questions.

Heraldry Meetings

Heraldry Meetings at the Barons keep: (If you have allergies to fur bearing creatures, please call in advance.)

Start time is noon-ish Nov 29.

Note to the heavy fighters. One of the heralds is also a merchant, if asked in advance he would be willing to haul his supply of rattan here for your perusal. Please call me about a week prior to the meeting, so arrangements can be made.

Performing Arts Guild

Place: The home of Mistress Bernice of Brittany (233-9558)
Date/Time: Wednesday, November 5, 1997 7:00 pm

This month is a special guild meeting for the young people of Caerthe. Please note that this is Wednesday, not the normal Tuesday, so that more of the young people will be able to attend. The Yule Season is rapidly approaching and with the theme of Twelfth Night being Music and Merriment, we would like to take the opportunity to teach some new songs and stories to the young and talented of Caerthe. Baronial Yule and Twelfth Night will provide at least two opportunities to show off your new skills and impress their Majesties and their Excellencies. We expect to come out of this with at least a young girls choir and maybe a boys choir also. And I know of at least one young musician who will accompany them (no pressure Brian). So come and bring the youngest members of the Barony.

Directions: From 32nd and Wadsworth, take 32nd East to Newland and turn Left (North). From 32nd and Sheridan, take 32nd West to Newland and turn right (also North). 3495 Newland St. (Southwest corner of Newland and 35th)

Thank You

I would like to thank the following gentles for their help at the Star Con Demo. We passed out a lot of flyers and seemed to have several people interested. Thank you to Mistress Mirianna, ThLady Gabrielle Cartier, Lady Cecelia, Lady Jorunn, and Otto and to the fighters, Lady Rivka, Lord Paul of Sutton, Talyn, Constance and Lord Robert. Thank you for providing costumes, books, the items for display and your time.

Changing of the Colors Masqued Ball & Hawks Hollow Anniversary Celebration

November 1, 1997

Pray attend good gentles and listen well!

It is the Brother Winds that whisper their now chill call through the changing leaves - beckoning for you to attend a sublime celebration. The Changing of the Colors Grand Ball. The wheel of the year spins quickly and another fruitful summer has past.

Toys for Tots Tourney

As the winds of winter blow through our grand Barony, we begin to celebrate the season and the holidays it brings. However, at this time of year, it is important for us to remember that the cold hand of poverty touches those the worst at this time of year. For many years, the United States Marine Corps has attempted to lessen the impact of poverty amongst those youths at Christmastime. It is through the Toys for Tots program that many children get to shed the cloak of poverty, if for only one day. On Sunday, November 23, 1997 at the Jefferson County Fairgrounds, the glorious Barony of Caerthe will continue its tradition of making miracles happen for those less fortunate.

The site will open at 10:00 am and close at 6:00 p.m.. The site fee for this event is a mere new $5.00 (or more) toy per person. A small price to pay for the smile of a child. Please, no gift wrap. We leave this to the Marines. There will be fighting for light and heavy weapons, not to mention an Arts and Sciences tournament for the artisans! There will be a hot dish on site, for those who wish to participate in a pot-luck lunch. Those who wish to eat are encouraged to bring side dishes only. There is to be plenty for everyone to enjoy:

Heavy Weapons - Fighting galore! The top two finishers will receive prizes, the first place finisher to be declared •Champion of the Tots•.

Light Weapons - Fighting galore as well! Again, the top two finishers will receive prizes, and the top finisher to be the •Protector of the Tots•.

Arts & Sciences - Bring anything you'd like to have displayed for competition, or perhaps a song or story! Items that are geared toward the event or the season are encouraged and will be given special consideration! No documentation will be necessary, and no specific classes are identified. The top two finishers will receive a prize, and the winner to be declared •Artisan of the Tots•.

Consort Tourney - Grieving Widow Style! Sponsored by the Consort of Honor. Returab and her panel of ladies. First Place prize! Winner to be •Consort of the Tots•.

Ride Boffer Tourney - Prize to First place finisher! Winner to be •Defender of the Tots•.

There is more! You say, •More?•, yes MORE! There is a kingdom competition going on as well! The challenge has been sent across our Kingdom that whichever group should produce the most toys shall receive a sword for the Heavy fighter, and a dagger for the Light fighter who proves to be victorious on this day. These items may be carried for one year!

There will be Marines on hand to collect all the toys, and ensure that they are distributed to the neediest children. If you came last year, please join us again and bring someone who didn't attend before. If you've never attended, this is the one to come to as there is much to do for all. If you don't come, everyone will wonder where you are! Also, people have inquired about bringing extra toys! If you are able, feel free to do so. Extra toys are very welcome as long as they meet the Marine Corps guidelines.

Come to enjoy good times and good friend!
Come to the Jefferson County Fairgrounds
Come help make miracles happen!

A Letter from Schola

Lord Frederick,

I have heard that there was a miscommunication dealing with heavy fighters coming to Schola Metallorum's fighter practice. We have been dealing with a very picky and very fickle school administration here and it has led to several unpleasantness. At one point, we were told that with both fencers and heavies in the field house in which we practice we were taking up too much room. Also, there was a concern that the metal armor would tear-up the surface in the field house. Although we had enjoyed having the heavy fighters come (we have historically been just fencers, at least since I've been here) I had to tell the heavies that they weren't allowed to fight inside with us any more. Within the next week, we had re-negotiated with the administration and they are now willing to let heavies fight in the field house provided that they fight on the other end of the field house (it takes up less space if the heavies and lights are separated) and that they bring a large piece of carpeting to kneel on when fighting from their knees. However, before we could rectify the situation, I have been told that the original news that we could not accept heavies any more got out and upset several people. I would like to officially offer my apologies for the misunderstanding and welcome any and all heavy fighters that would like to fight with us. If you could please run an announcement in the Fortress explaining this I, and the rest of Schola, would be most grateful. Thank you.

Louis de Pointe du Lac, Knight Marshal, Schola Metallorum

Annual Calendar Planning Meeting

Sunday, Dec. 7 12-3:00 P.M.

Good populace, I'm sure you've realized just how active (event wise) the northern Outlands has become. Rare is it when I can find an open weekend for an event, three months prior. Therefore, on Sunday Dec. 7th at the clubhouse of m'lady Patrice, there will be a meeting in which all prospective autocrats (for official Baronial events) will gather to schedule their dates, fill out their event forms and receive their signatures so that their forms may be sent in and that these brave and wise autocrats may run their events (in the next year) without the fear of unneeded worry due to a possible schedule conflict.

Official Caerthen Events (excluding Twelfth Night) will be:

-Caerthen War Practice
-Fortress Benefit
-Fiber Arts and Sciences competitions and collegium
-Visual & FunctionalArts and Sciences competitions and collegium
-Performing Arts and Sciences competitions and collegium
-Culinary Arts and Sciences competitions and collegium
-Caerthen Warlord
-"Boo at the Zoo" demo
-Caerthen populace party
-"Toys for Tots" tourney?
-Caerthen Yule

 If you were a champion at either one of the four Arts and Sciences events or at Warlord. How will this meeting effect you? You will be given first opportunity to autocrat the event you were champion in, for the next year. All champions must inform me of their intention to autocrat, by the meeting date. If a champion fails to notify the Seneschal of his/her intentions by that time, the event will be opened for bids from the general populace.

What if you can't reserve a site until early 98'? I understand that some parks and facilities do not allow their property to be reserved until it is the year that use is intended, however, the situation is far easier for me to send in a site correction than to find another date because we waited to send in the form until we could get a confirmed site. Though I would prefer and do still encourage autocrats to have confirmed sites when they submit an event bid form, I will still sign a form as long as the appropriate site information and directions are there.

What if you can't get an event bid form to me, for whatever reason, on the day of the meeting? You have until the last day of January to give me this form. If you do not the event will be opened to the general populace.

Will this event effect the Twelfth Night event bid submission process? No. The same April solicitation-May receive/review and June announcement process will still stand.

The event you're planning, is not listed above. Can you still submit your event form at this meeting? Of course! The more work we get done on this day, the better.

-Hawks Hollow and Schola Metalorum Seneschals are also invited to attend! I wish to make the best use of this meeting as possible!

Caer Galen Midwinter Crimson Colour Court
December 20, 1997

The horns wind the recall, the hounds are returned to the keep. The horses, lathered, are led away by liveried footmen. Come join the noble revelers of Caer Galen as we celebrate the hunt among the leaves and pine needles of the Black Forest. Be merry with us as a crimson colour court blends with the greens of the wood to herald in the winter's festive season.

During the day, fencers will show their skills as the contest to determine who will lead the citizens of the City Watch as their Captain. Weather permitting, the tournament will alternate with rounds of heavy weapons combat to determine a new Defender for our walls. (Schedule and details to follow in the December issue.)

In the evening, a feast from the native kitchens of Germany will be served, followed by dancing, singing, and traditional games of Caer Galen. Together we will ward off the winter's chill.

Site fee is $7, and feast is $8. Children under 12 half price, and under 5 free. The hall has a limited seating capacity, so only the first 90 reservations will be accepted. Map to Chautaqua Community Hall to follow in December edition.

Roman Boy, Testi-clees (a.k.a. ThLord Roland) slid down the rails of the front stairway outside the church at Caerthe's Performing AS on Oct. 4th and fell head over toga off the end of the rail. Lets just say some people saw a part of Testi-clees not many have seen before. Don't worry though, Testi-clees and his pride are still intact.
However it was indeed a Full Moon that day.

Rite of Passage

In Hibernia born to a father full worthy,
Who died fighting Normans with a sword in his hand.
My schooling was then taken up by my Uncle,
A pirate more clever than the scholars of France.
He said "I've seen a horse, a fine Andelou stallion,
I've seen a blade of the good spanish steel.
I've seen a bonnet of Rhineland guild iron,
And a cunning wrought halbert from over the sea.
I've seen them all, I've seen them a-a-all,
I've seen them all in my travels at sea."

My eyes met the knight's as we boarded his vessel,
My rusty blade sundered by his first blow at me.
As I bore into the deck, my wound burned like fire,
But not quite as brightly as the things in my dreams.
I said "I'll have a horse, a fine Andelou stallion,
I'll have a blade of the good spanish steel.
I'll have a bonnet of Rhineland guild iron,
And a cunning wrought halbert from over the sea.
I'll have them all, I'll have them a-a-all,
I'll have them all, in the ransom for thee."

The ransom by law, well it went to my Uncle,
A tunic and dagger were all he gave me.
We drank the French wine as the knight spoke of tourney,
The fine things and glories that waited for me.
He said "You want a horse, a fine Andelou stallion,
You want a blade of the good spanish steel.
Bonnet for thee is of Rhineland guild iron,
And a cunning wrought halbert from over the sea.
You'll have them all, you'll have them a-a-all,
You'll have them all, if you come back with me.

I went with the knight for my heart was a lion's,
I had no skill with the horse or the lance.
Through the pain and the shame of my training I chanted,
My head hit the ground or I stumbled at dance.
Oh, I'll have a horse, a fine Andelou stallion,
I'll have a blade of the good spanish steel.
I'll have a bonnet of Rhineland guild iron,
And a cunning wrought halbert from over the sea.
I'll have them all, I'll have them a-a-all,
I'll have them all, when I've mastered these deeds.

The tournament field held both demons and angels,
Men well-scarred and ruthless, and ladies full-faire,
My horse and my armor were much cause for laughter,
But I laughed right back when I saw the knights there.
For one sat a horse, a fine Andelou stallion,
One gird a blade of the good spanish steel.
'Nother donned a bonnet of Rhineland guild iron,
And a cunning wrought halbert from over the sea.
I'll have them all, I'll have them a-a-all,
I'll have them all, when I've won them from ye.

The knights on the meadow they numbered five-hundred,
But midst that dense throng I saw clearly but three.
The first one still carries my lance in his shoulder,
The second and third lie well-bitten by steel.
Now, I have a horse, a fine Andelou stallion,
I have a blade of the good spanish steel.
I have a bonnet of Rhineland guild iron,
And a cunning wrought halbert from over the sea.
I have them all, I have them a-a-all,
I have them all, and now all shall know me.

The ladies that evening they looked on me frowning,
Saying "Many wild beast can do the deeds that we've seen."
So I danced in the galliard, and lilted a chancon,
Now all the knights grow quite jealous of me.
For I have a horse, a fine Andelou stallion,
I have a blade of the good spanish steel.
I have a bonnet of Rhineland guild iron,
And a cunning wrought halbert from over the sea.
I have them all, I have them a-a-all,
I have them all, all the ladies I mean.

By torchlight we harkened the tales of armed pilgrims,
Who told us of wonders in the lands of the East.
Where a butler through merit became prince of Jaffa,
I cried out "My lords pray book passage for me!"
For I have a horse, a fine Andelou stallion,
I have a blade of the good spanish steel.
I have a bonnet of Rhineland guild iron,
And a cunning wrought halbert from over the sea.
I have them all, I have them a-a-all,
I'll have it all, all the lands there for me.

My halbert has warded a dozen barbed arrows,
My stallion with hooves shod in iron fells three.
The blow of an imir is turned on my bonnet,
My blade swift as lightning flies straight at his teeth.
For I have a horse a fine Andelou stallion,
I have a blade of the good spanish steel.
I have a bonnet of Rhineland guild iron,
And a cunning wrought halbert from over the sea.
I have it all, I have it a-a-all
I have it all, all his lands left to me.

My feif on the marshes looks east on Damascus,
A hold fit only for the fierce and the bold.
And I need strong vassals with hearts like a lion's,
To help me bear back what the caravans hold.
And you'll have a horse, a fine Andelou stallion.
You'll have a blade of the good spanish steel.
You'll have a bonnet of Rhineland guild iron,
And a cunning wrought halbert from over the sea.
You'll have it all, you'll have it a-a-all,
You'll have it all, all the spoils of the east.

Yes, you'll have it all, you'll have it a-a-all,
You'll have it all, if you come back with me.
